

LOCHLANN O NEILL

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

I'm reaching out to express my interest in the Graduate position. With a solid foundation in computer science and practical experience in software development, I'm excited about the prospect of contributing to your innovative projects and working alongside professionals in the field. I believe my skills are a good fit for the position requirements, and I'm enthusiastic about the chance to learn and develop within your dynamic work environment.

As a recent First-Class Honours graduate of BSc (Honours) Software Development at Munster Technological University, I am eager to pursue a new role as a professional developer to bridge the gap between my studies and hands-on experience. I am particularly drawn to the collaborative nature of devops and agile development, where teams work together to create efficient and high-quality solutions. I am enthusiastic about applying my theoretical knowledge in a real-world setting, expanding my skill set, and embracing best practices while working with innovative technologies.

In pursuing a software engineering graduate program, my objective is to acquire practical experience in writing, testing, and maintaining scalable and reliable code using good programming practices. I am keen on expanding these skills alongside an agile team. I am determined to scale and thrive in a team environment by staying adaptable to industry trends and fostering a passion for ongoing learning.

I believe this opportunity represents a valuable step towards achieving my career goals. A position with your company would provide an excellent opportunity to gain practical experience in the field before exploring further growth opportunities within the organization. I am committed to making the most of the resources invested in me. Moreover, I am enthusiastic about exploring and embracing any opportunities that the company may offer. I am eager to learn more about the diverse opportunities available within the organization.

Thank you for your consideration.

SINCERELY,

LOCHLANN O NEILL
